1. Our Principles

- 1.1 All employees are expected to act with integrity, respect colleagues, protect company assets and comply with applicable law.

2. Conflict of Interest

- 2.1 Employees must disclose any financial interest in a vendor, customer or competitor to their manager and Compliance within 10 working days of becoming aware of it.
- 2.2 Outside employment requires written approval from the Head of Compliance.

3. Gifts and Hospitality

- 3.1 Employees may accept gifts from vendors, customers or partners with a combined value of up to INR 5,000 per calendar year per giver. Cash or cash equivalents (including gift cards) must always be declined.
- 3.2 Any gift above INR 5,000 must be declined or surrendered to Compliance and recorded in the Gifts Register.

4. Harassment and Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH)

- 4.1 Northwind has zero tolerance for harassment. Complaints may be raised with the Internal Committee (IC) at ic@northwind.example.
- 4.2 Complaints must be raised within 3 months of the incident, extendable by a further 3 months for good cause, in line with the POSH Act.

5. Confidentiality and Social Media

- 5.1 Employees must not disclose confidential company, customer or colleague information, including on social media. Personal opinions must not be presented as company positions.

6. Speaking Up (Whistleblower)

- 6.1 Concerns about suspected misconduct can be raised confidentially at ethics@northwind.example or on the 24x7 Ethics Hotline 1800-000-0000. Retaliation against a good-faith reporter is strictly prohibited.

7. Disciplinary Action

- 7.1 Breaches may result in a verbal warning, written warning, suspension, or termination depending on severity. Serious misconduct (fraud, harassment, data theft) may lead to immediate termination.
